For context, Kamala Harris announced her selection of Tim Walz as her running mate on August 6.

The deadline for entering the crop art competition was the next day, August 7, until 4:30 p.m.

The drop-off date was August 18.

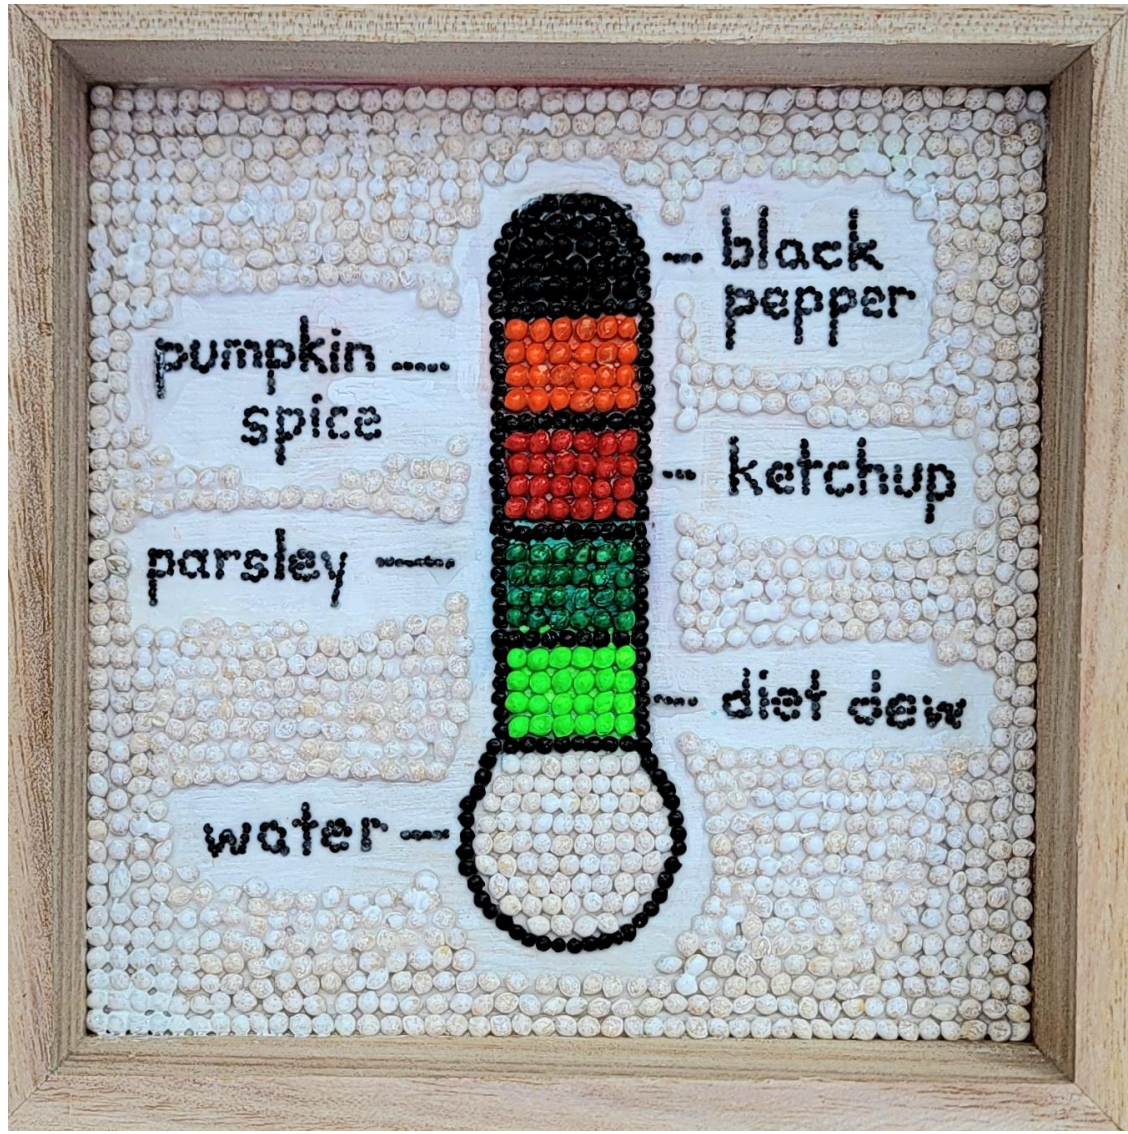

So anyone interested in creating a Walz-related entry had to decide quickly and work quickly! But many did!

- There will be other Walz crop art pieces on display at the Fair; however, they are not included here because we had no way to get permission.
- There will be many more political crop art entries at the Fair, but this collection specifically highlights Tim Walz, as he is from Minnesota.
